Death of an Old Citizen of Doniphum County.

From the Bighamton (S. Y.) Duily Republican, we learn that Gen. John Bayless died in that city, on the 11th inst., in the 74th year of his age. Gen. Bayless was one of the pioneers of Doniphon County, and one of the founders of Highland. After a residence of some years in Kahsas, he returned to New York, where he resided until his death. Gen. Bayless was an earnest Free State man during the Kansas struggle, and held several offices during I is residence here. He served one term as County School Super-intendent, during the infancy and before the perfection of our school system, and he was a member of the State Senour school system; and he was a member of the State Sen-ate during the impeachment trial of the State officers, in 1802, having been elected to fill a vacancy. His record during that Session was most honorable; he having steadi-ly and firmly voice according to his convictions, from the evidence, much to the disappointment of the prime movers of the impeachment, who sought the accomplishment of a certain end, and who thought they sould control the vote fact that the last time be walked from house by himself, was on election day, 1873, when, fearing that the carriage would not come after him, he took his came, and without giving notice to any one, went to the polla, and cast his role int Uteneral Grant. He was overtaken on his way home by one of his sons, and assisted, of his would hardly have been able to return.

He was a most gentlad gentleman; of great kinduless, courtessy, and dignity; and empoyed the high respect of all. His character is a legacy to his children, who are among the most estimable of chiracus. Four of them are in the West; and three of them in Broome County; two of the latter=John Bayless and V. W. Bayless—in Binghandon. The funcral is expected to be held from his late residence, at 3 p. m., on Wednesday.

FF A man calling himself a Second Adventist, but who came nearer filling the bill of a lunatic, was in town, on Monday, making rhymes, and prophesying. He says Christ is coming on the 25th of this month. At times, his prophesies embraced but a partial destruction of things. The Court House and a few other buildings in town were decemed to come down on the 55th inst. Just thirty years ago, the destruction of all things was mapped out; but the world still wags, and those who had provided their ascension robes, have been dressed and sent in the other direction.

PLUCK OF THE MODOCS.—The Modocs are making a gallant resistance to the troops. Intreuched in their lava beds, they are battling like here against fearful odds. If this band of savages had not cut themselves loose from the sympathies of the world by their act of most unparalleled perfidy, their present heroic contest would challinge the greatest admiration even from their enemies. They do not always akulk in ravines and hide in rocky crevices, but have boldly attacked the intrenched position of our troops. From their lookouts they wave their banners of defiance. Half a hundred naked savages against near a thousand troops armed with rifle, howitzer and field guns, and with more than their own number of Warm Spring Indians aiding their enemies. It seems almost a pity that we may not admire so brave and resolute a hand, but that we must condemn them to a merciless extinction for an act of treachery for which civilization finds no exense.—San Francisco Chronicle.
